

Funding to cover tuition - Zero Energy Buildings Online Course

Published 20-Aug-20 by Alexandre Hebert

Our Fall 2020 Zero energy building courses will be online with a primarily broadcast live from the BCIT High Performance Building lab!

Check out our Trailer!

Now you can have the best of two worlds; you can learn from the comfort of your home and get a practical learning experience as if you were in the lab with our industry experts / instructors.

We have funding available to cover tuition cost of Indigenous students from across Canada.

Learn more about our Zero Energy Building courses here: <https://commons.bcit.ca/zeroenergybuildings/>

Courses start September 15, 2020.
