

CMHC Housing Supply Challenge - Round 3 (Northern Access)

Published 10-Jan-22 by Corey Cote

Building in the north is expensive and difficult. CMHC is looking for your help and ideas to solve supply chain issues in the housing industry.

The third round of the Housing Supply Challenge is looking for residents and professionals to submit ideas and solutions to improve Canada's housing supply chain in northern and remote regions.

We want to hear from you, your experience and expertise matter! We're going to take the best ideas and offer funding and support to bring them to life.

A call for ideas from residents and industry pros to improve supply chains.

If you live in a northern and remote region or are a supply chain professional, you know your community and industry better than anyone. That's why we're looking for ideas and solutions from both residents and professionals alike.

Northern and Remote Residents

CMHC wants to help you develop your idea. They will have support programs to help you get your idea off the ground – can help you manage things like capacity or help you find resources and partners to develop your ideas.

Industry Professionals

The following organizations are strongly encouraged to apply:

- For-profit and not-for-profit organizations
- Indigenous organizations and groups
- Canadian post-secondary institutions

- Government (provincial, territorial, Indigenous, municipal, local, and regional)
- Teams composed of a variety of participants

For the more information you can view the full posting by clicking here.

tags : cmhc